Yakima Valley Libraries Welcomes New Trustee, James Davenport

Yakima, WA- Yakima Valley Libraries welcomes James H. Davenport as our new trustee effective January 1, 2015. Mr. Davenport is a resident of Buena and has been a valuable part of the Friends of the Buena Library throughout their formation and building of the Buena branch of Yakima Valley Libraries. Mr. Davenport graduated from the University of Washington and Willamette University College of Law. He has worked with the Thurston County Civil Service Commission, City of Olympia Planning Commission and the Yakima Airport Board. Currently he holds community positions as Chairman of the Yakima County Law Library and a member of the Friends of the Buena Library.

Yakima Valley Libraries is governed by an independent Board of Library Trustees. Five people are appointed to the Board by the Yakima County Commissioners for staggered terms of five years each. The Board of Library Trustees appoints the Director who administers the operation of the Library within the policies, goals and objectives approved by the Board as established under RCW 27.12.
