Yakima Valley Libraries' Pop-Up Library Debuts May 14

Yakima Valley Libraries presents its Pop-Up Library on May 14th at the Zillah Community Days! The Pop-Up Library is an interactive, portable library designed for public use at community events.

Library Director Kim Hixson states, "I'm excited about extending library services in such a unique way! We invite everyone to participate, sign up for a library card and check out books directly from our modular display. Staff will be on site to assist the public throughout this event." Books for all ages will be available as well as handout materials listing the seventeen Yakima Valley Libraries locations and hours.

The YVL Pop-Up Library will also be featured at other upcoming events:

- Old Town Days in Union Gap, June 18 and 19
- National Night Out at Southeast Community Center, August 1
- Highland Community Days, August 20

Hixson conveyed, "Our library district offer exceptional opportunities with the purpose of meeting our community's needs. We are always considering novel and innovative ways to extend our services and an ongoing resource to the public."
